    former Goldman Sachs executive was sentenced to three years in prison on Monday, for using his position at the world's largest investment banking firm to commit wire fraud and money laundering after he pocketed at least $65 million from misleading clients on a so-called "hedge fund," according to a press release from the Department of Justice. Brad Renfro, the former head of an energy-focused hedge fund called Evolve Management, pleaded guilty in June to a count of conspiracy to commit wire fraud and operate a scheme to defraud investors in connection with a commodities
